1. Complete the interview with Georgia Stump with the following phrases:

used to work

used to get

you use to work

used to go

used to make

used to enjoy

used to have

did you use to get

Interviewer: Where were you born?

Georgia: I was born in west London

Interviewer: Was it a pleasant place to grow up?

Georgia: No, it wasn't. The area _____ a lot of factories and things, no trees at all. It has changed a lot since then.

Interviewer: Did you go to school in west London?

Georgia: No, I didn't. I _____ to a school about ten kilometres away.

Interviewer: _____ good marks at school?

Georgia: No! I _____ mainly D and E grades and I failed all my exams.

Interviewer: What were your best subjects at school?

Georgia: I _____ music lessons most! I always liked singing really loudly.

Interviewer: Did _____ during the holidays?

Georgia: Yes, I did. I _____ at one of the film studios in the area. You know, just making tea and coffee.

Interviewer: How did you get your first job as a film director?

Georgia: I _____ my own short films. I made one called "Night". The screen was just black all the time. Really clever – black, "Night", see? The studio bosses thought it was clever too, so they offered me a job.
